

THE DAY OF IMPARTATION

Joel 2:28-29

Introduction: We are on the threshold of the greatest exponential manifestation of God's Spirit that the world has ever witnessed or conceived. While revival has sprouted up here and there from time to time, this Heaven-sent revelation and plethora of spiritual gifts will envelope the earth, ushering in the rapture of the church. We have all tenaciously prayed and anticipated for this day to come when people will be healed instantaneously as they enter into a service. A whole congregation will be healed in a nanosecond. The time of prayer with meager results will be over. It will be a new vista when it will not be unusual to see people jump out of wheelchairs and begin to dance. We are going to see a quintessential time of God's supernatural favor extended to His people. Yes, sin is abounding in perfusion and rampant everywhere. But, the Bible says, "Where sin abounds grace does much more abound." Romans 5:20. The abundant grace of God will flow in an exponential way as never witnessed before. The anointing of hands will expedite our participation in this outpouring.

- I. The day of manifestation
 - A. Joel instructs us to get ready. Joel 1:14. Expectation is filling the air! He emphatically tells us to sound the alarm with the blowing of the shofar in 2:1.
 - B. In Joel 2:28-29, God promises the most climactic manifestation of His Spirit to date and that its affect will be ubiquitous.
 - C. This will be the hour of the impartation of God's salubrious favor. It will result in a harvest of souls unprecedented since Pentecost.
 - D. The holy, impervious, infusing dew of Heaven will be so bountiful that it will cover the earth. When it lifts, there will be manna – lots of it. God is releasing showers of blessings on His chosen saints. The rain of God is resting on the seeds, the seeds that you have been ruminating in your heart. They are divine, preprogrammed seeds of destiny that are going to bud and blossom.
 - E. Joel says that the Pentecostal storm is coming. Joel 2:23-29. We have been waiting for a long time, and now the time has come to fruition! Are you ready?
 - F. It is going to commence to accumulate in intensity like Jesus increased in wisdom and stature. Luke 2:52.
 - G. God is capaciously enlarging our capacity to receive this impartation of His Spirit. God is placing a crown of manifestation upon the heads of His faithful chosen saints, a crown of great favor and authority with God and man. Hebrews 11:6.
 - H. Paul caps it off in Ephesians 1:5-10. The time is now. God wants to bestow on us His unprecedented and beyond human comprehension riches, goodwill, and grace.
 - I. In this salubrious outpouring of God's Spirit, He is commissioning saints to rise up with His favor and empowering them to do exploits.
 - J. Proverbs 10:22 "...It makes rich, and He adds no sorrow to it."
 - K. It is time for us to fulfill our destiny. We were created for this eventful hour. Like Esther, we have come to the kingdom for such an hour as this.

Conclusion: Jesus promised that if we abide in Him and His Words abide in us, we could ask what we will and it would be done for us. John 15:7. We are now talking of not only addition but abundant multiplication. God has promised to pour out His Spirit without measure. The evidence of God's favor is going to be on everything you touch. I don't know how any saint of God can help but get excited about where we are headed.
